Seniors Return Home From New Orleans Trip

Members of the senior class and their sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. Gannett Frazier, returned at 8 p.m. Wednesday from a five day trip to New Orleans and other points.

Among highlights of their visit to New Orleans was a Greyline Tour, a guided tour of the city, lasting from 9:30 to 4 Monday. Monday night they were unable to get any guide for a night tour, so the group made that tour on their own, winding up at the Morning Call Coffee House with coffee and doughnuts.

On Tuesday they went for a yacht ride on the yacht belonging to Ernest Toepfer of Crowley at Abbeville, La.

Tuesday night was spent in Galveston at the Jack Tar Hotel.

All reported an enjoyable trip and as the arrival was at "press time" individual reports will be carried in next week's CITIZEN.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

In behalf of the Class of 1957, I, Nancie Jones, duly elected vice-president of said Class of the School of Kyle, State of Texas, do hereby publish and declare this instrument to be the last will and testament of said class, duly made by me, legally signed and witnessed by said testators.

Item I. We, the Class of 1957, being of sound mind and body, and of extremely generous nature, do hereby bequeath and give to the incumbent Class of 1958 our new senior homeroom (which we initiated this year) all the lockers vacated by seniors and all contents of said lockers (such as broken erasers, pencils, gum, and candy wrappers, and old notes). In addition, we leave to the Class of 1958 all the money that is left over after our Senior Trip to New Orleans. To the new Senior boys, the thrill of being the most sought-after boys' friends--by the Freshman girls.

Item II. To the incumbent Junior Class we leave one of our most treasured possessions--our ability to make money for a good cause. We would like to add that this is a very valuable ability and should be used wisely, as some classes are not so gifted.

Item III. To the incumbent Sophomores we leave only three more years of school--to enjoy or not--as the case may be.

Item IV. To the new Freshmen, we leave only two things--gay good-byes and a friendly word of advice: "everybody has to be a lowly freshman before he can become an honored senior."

Item V. All of the rest and residue of our estate is left as follows:

Charlotte Bales leaves her position on the volleyball and basketball teams to Bobbie Jones. In addition she leaves the pleasure of spending the first period every morning in the company of Mr. Frazier in the school court room to Louise Lancaster.

Roger Galan bequeaths to Lois Franke his silly giggle, on the condition that she uses it as often as he did. He leaves his ability to flirt to Dolores Schmeltekopf.

Betty Jo Busse leaves her undying interest in books, magazines, and all other printed matter to Dorothy Wittenburg.

Donnie Echols wills his ability to blow bubbles on the basketball court, make buddies with the referees, and smile when he makes a foul to Louann Lancaster. He also leaves to Carvel Brooks his latest "kat" haircut.

Ray Schmeltekopf leaves his job as manager to Coach Johnson until a qualified substitute can be found to take his place.

Julia Mendez leaves all her tardy and absentee slips to Mr. Garnett Frazier on the condition that he use the same to start next year's Homecoming bonfire.

Carmen Schulle leaves her absent-minded, scatterbrained personality (which she plans to outgrow after she marries) to Mrs. Frazier to dispose of as she sees fit.

Charles Schmeltekopf bequeaths his quietness and love of school to Wendell Tyler. In addition he leaves his job as candy boy to Pete Dressen.

Gaytha Schulle leaves her A's in Readin', 'Ritin', and 'Rithmetic to Charlene LaBlack.

Joe Tenorio wills his ability to successfully talk his way out of anything and everything to Julia Bauder.

Janet Nance bequeaths the headaches of the "Panther" to Frances Strawn.

Lee Stuenkel leaves his "Cassanova" appeal to women to Rex Wiegand.

Irma Lopez bequeaths her temper and her ability to mambo to Suzie Mendez.

John Osgood leaves his "Valentino" appeal to women to Billy Dees.

Don Schmeltekopf leaves his ability in all sports to H. J. Schnautz and all other talents, which are many, to Mills Cox.

Blasita Selbera leaves another length of ponytail and her eternal silence to Jerilyne Busse.

Jackie Zerr bequeaths her freckles to Patsy Sites and her love for sleep to Tommy Allen.

Ethel Wittenburg leaves her cheerleader's position and her sweet smile to Mary Holmes Dudley.

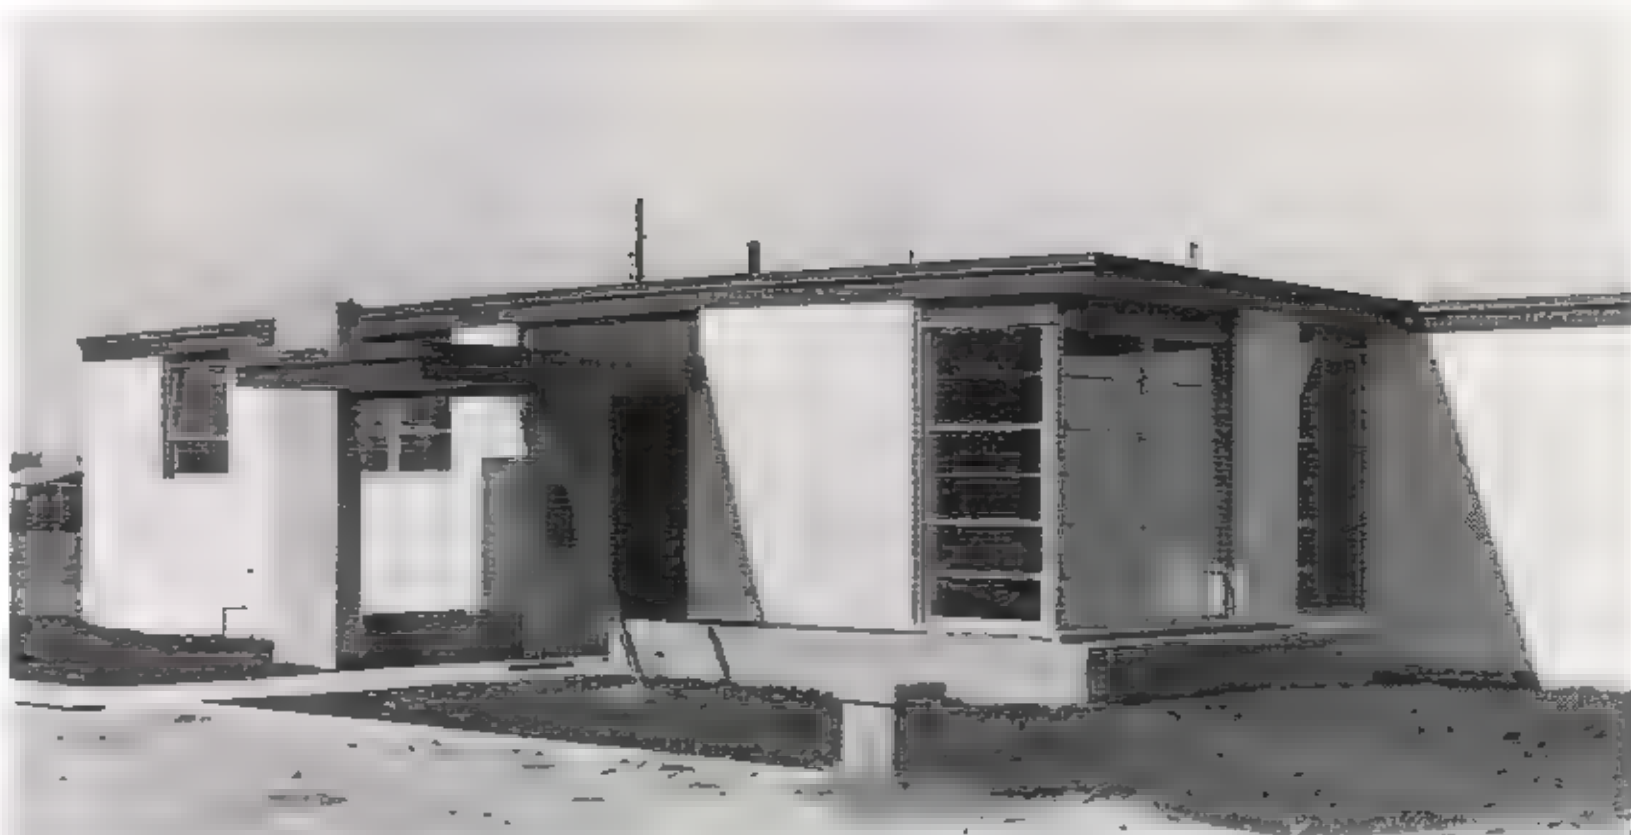

John Osgood and Lee Stuenkel bequeath their Monday morning conferences about the week-end before to Pete Dressen and Tommy Allen.

Julia Mendez, Ethel Wittenburg, Jackie Zerr, and Carmen Schulle leave their luck in finding and catching the right man to the Exotics.

I, Nancie Jones, give and bequeath to Roxie Hill the honor of writing the 1958 Class Will and in addition bequeath to her the gift of saying the right thing at the wrong time.

To the Students:

The marvels of science, invention, and manufacturing have given us a variety of goods and services unheard of a generation ago. When mother and dad were growing up, nylon, air-conditioning, and television were all unknown. Now each of them is a more-than-billion-dollar business.

In the past quarter-century, the chemical industry alone has grown three times faster than all other industries. Chemistry has its own special way of creating new raw materials, new jobs, and opportunities.

Chemistry has given us magnesium from sea water, nylon from coal and limestone, artificial wool from cheese, soap from corn, and diamonds from common coal. The list of these fabulous developments is endless. There is no horizon, no end to the story of progress.

May I congratulate you on your achievements in this high school. Your future looks bright, and there is a real place for you in this moving story of progress.

I am as always,

Your teacher and friend,
